Making workplace safety and health a top priority: OS+H Asia 2018 to further champion safety and health topics at concurrently held Forum

10 July 2018 – With growing demand for workplace safety and health (WSH) products and solutions, propelled by the government and industry's heightened call for companies to achieve zero-harm and accident-free status, the 11th edition of OS+H Asia will welcome 200 companies from 25 countries showcasing more than 1,500 products, services and solutions.

As Asia's most important and dedicated business platform for all involved in occupational safety and health, OS+H Asia 2018 highlights seven key areas that will include: Crisis & Emergency Management, Fire Protection, Health at Work, Smart Technologies, Work at Height, Environmental Control, and Workplace Ergonomics. With first-time participants coming from as far away as Brazil, Poland, and Russia, trade visitors can expect to encounter highlights such as live-line working experts and a self-contained self-rescuer that is maintenance-free, and meet leading brands such as 3M Technologies and Galmon, local powerhouses such as Kee Safety, Lifeline Corporation and many more.

Committed to establishing itself as a regional platform for the exchange of expertise and information on work health and safety, OS+HA Asia 2018 will also be offering a forum, seminars and technical presentations serving a multitude of application sectors across industries, from building and construction, automotive, oil and gas, to marine, hospitality and pharmaceuticals. Responding to the growing popularity of these sessions, OS+HA Asia will be presenting the one-day Forum on Workplace Safety and Health featuring the most eminent thought leaders and educators in their fields.

Forum on Workplace Safety & Health 2018 | 31 August

Jointly organised by Messe Düsseldorf Asia and the Singapore Institution of Safety Officers (SISO), the Forum on Workplace Safety & Health has established itself as a signature event at OS+H Asia, gathering regional WSH experts, specialists and manufacturers to share insights on strategic capabilities in workplace safety and health. It also provides learning opportunities to discuss emerging issues in WSH, competency requirements for WSH professionals and the latest WSH technological advances and innovations.
